Thursday, December 11, 2014
5:30 to 7:30 PM

Oakland City Hall, Hearing Room 2

Come and learn how to access undiscovered talent for your company

Employment law attorneys will present practical and useful information on how to use criminal history information in hiring in compliance with the law, helping businesses protect themselves from liability concerns, and also giving them access to an untapped pool of talent.

Presented by attorneys from Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP, Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights of the San Francisco Bay Area, and the National Employment Law Project, in partnership with the Oakland Business Assistance Center.

Think Bill Gates. Sir Richard Branson of Virgin America. Did you know that these well-known, successful people have criminal records?

1 in 4 adults has an arrest or conviction record, often for very old or minor offenses. That's an estimated 375,000 people in Alameda County. What potential good hires are you missing?
