

Welcome to the Neighborhood

OBDC is thrilled to support your business. In an effort to help you in the first few months of opening, we are now offering an opportunity to co-host a soft opening with you, inviting OBDC's supporters and community to join us.

What OBDC will do

- Invite our network of supporters to join us at the event, including clients, funders, and other members of our community.
- Post about the event and your business on social media.
- Encourage our staff and board to attend.

What you will do

- Invite your network and supporters to join.
- Post about the event on social media.
- Manage all the event logistics, highlighting the best parts of your business.

To take advantage of this opportunity

Email Katie Taylor, Manager - Marketing & Special Projects katie@obdc.com, including the dates and times you prefer for your event (at least 30 days in advance) and the best way to contact you.

Please note: OBDC will make every effort to invite all of our supporters, but we cannot guarantee attendance at any event.
